CITY OF PÉCS

- Pécs is the fifth largest city in Hungary with a population of about 160,000.
- It lies in South Transdanubia, close to the border with Croatia.
- It has a mild, almost Mediterranean climate.
- Its history goes back over 2,000 years to the Roman times.
- The downtown of Pécs is a unique mixture of the relics of Early Christianity (part of the UNESCO World Heritage), the arrival of the Hungarians, the Turkish reign and the achievements of modern architecture and art.
- Pécs is a university city. It is full of restaurants, cafés and bars; it has an incredibly vivid student life day and night.
- Pécs was the European Capital of Culture in 2010 (with Essen and Istanbul).

Located in the South Western part of Hungary, Pécs is a culturally diverse and stimulating city, with a population of about 160,000.

Lying in the South of Transdanubia, close to the border with Croatia, it has a mild, almost Mediterranean climate. The downtown of Pécs is a unique mixture of the relics of Early Christianity, the arrival of the Hungarians, the Turkish reign and the achievements of modern architecture and art. The National Theatre, the Philharmonic Orchestra, and the internationally renowned Ballet Ensemble offer interesting programmes in addition to the Summer Festival, the International Culture Week in Pécs (ICWIP) and the Pécs Days.

Pécs is also the seat of Baranya County, a region with many attractions for visitors: the Mecsek Hills, the Mecsek-Siklós-Villány wine region, the spa of Harkány, the Holiday Village of Hegyszentmárton, fascinating old villages and historic castles (Siklós, Szigetvár, Pécsvárő, etc.).

Pécs is a beautiful place to study. Not only because it is simultaneously a friendly village and a very active city, in which you can never be bored. You can be sure you will find everything that a student could wish for.

The history of Pécs dates back over 2,000 years, and the name of the old Roman town, „Sopianae” is still found in the names of institutions and products. Although its development suffered several setbacks throughout the centuries, such as the Tartar invasions or the Ottoman-Turkish Rule, it has not only survived, but developed into a pleasant, modern town, rich in historical monuments, an administrative, cultural and educational centre offering a lot to those who wish to live or study here. The town is famous for its museums, galleries, the festivals and cultural events it hosts. The downtown of Pécs is a unique mixture of the relics of Early Christianity, the arrival of the Hungarians, the Turkish reign and the achievements of modern architecture and arts. If you plan sightseeing, you can take a guided city tour or with help of a map from the Tourinform office you can discover the city by yourself too.

Arts and theatre
If you want to discover the cultural offerings of the city, one of the best places to visit is the Zsolnay Cultural Quarter, home of several exhibitions, art events and the Janus University Theatre, which already offers German language theatre plays as well. The National Theatre of Pécs is located at the heart of the city in Király Street, where you can enjoy a changing variety of the most popular theatre plays with a student discount.

Museums
It should not cause you a headache where to go to visit a museum because many of them are located downtown, so you don’t have to go far if you want to see the most popular art and historical exhibitions of Pécs.

Do not miss the most famous of all, the Cella Septichora (Szent István Square) Visitor Centre, a cemetery from the early Christian times, which has been part of the World Heritage since the year 2000. The one I really recommend visiting is the Vasarely Museum (3 Káptalan Street), which building was the one-time house of the Vasarely family. Seeing these special, geometric pictures is a unique experience for your senses. You only have to walk a few meters to find the Csontváry Museum. The acclaimed Hungarian painter Csontváry has become world-famous for his painting „The Lonely Cedar”, which can also be found among his other masterpieces exhibited in the gallery.

The Szérecsen Chemist’s Museum (1 Apáca Street) is a one-of-a-kind sight to visit recommended not only for pharmacy students. Located right at the corner of the main square, it has been operating as a chemist’s since 1897. The pharmacy also hosts a drug history exhibition; however, the forefront and the interior themselves are worth visiting too.
If you are interested in visiting other museums in Pécs, you can find information in English on the Museums of Pécs site.

Music
For those who prefer jazz, world or classical music, Kodály Centre, one of Hungary's most beautiful world-class concert halls is the place to visit for a high-quality concert experience. A regular performer of the concert hall is The Pannon Filharmonic Orchestra playing many classical interpretations of contemporary works, such as movie themes, creating a perfect mixture of the music of the past and the present. If you are more into rock music, the Rockmaraton is the best event to go to for a mind- and head-blowing rock experience. Fishing on Orfű is the ultimate summer festival in June located right next to the lake Orfű in the Mecsek Mountains.

Festivals
There are plenty of other festivals year-round, where you can enjoy the traditional and modern Hungarian performances. The POSZT (National Theatre Meeting in Pécs) in June offers many theatre related indoor and outdoor programs. The traditional Sétatér Fesztivál is perfect for those interested in Hungary's and the surrounding nations' drinks, foods and culture supplemented with a wide range of entertainment programs - for 3 weeks, day and night. ICWIP (International Culture Week in Pécs) offers a great opportunity to meet other students from all over the world in a framework of events concentrating on international studies. The aim of the Őrökseg Fesztivál - Pécsi Napok (Heritage Festival - Pécs Days) is to deliver a wide variety of cultural and art performances, not only in a traditional but often in an unconventional way. The Wine and Champagne Festival is all about its name with many different types of wine to taste and other home-made products to buy in a framework of a non-traditional culinary festival. Pécs City Karnevál is a huge street party with colorful costumes, music and fun all day in the streets of the city centre. Even if it is not strictly interpreted as a festival, Mecsek Rallye is definitely one of the biggest and oldest sport events of the city with fast cars racing on the slopes of Pécs. With the arrival of winter the festival season is not over yet. As many other cities, Pécs also has its traditional Advent fair on the Széchenyi and Kossuth squares with hot drinks, handmade gifts and a traditional Christmas swirl.

Of course there is life beyond the wide variety of festivals, so even if there is nothing „special” going on in Pécs, you still don’t have to sit at home. There are 2 cinemas in Pécs offering movies in English with Hungarian subtitles. The Cinemacity in Pécs Pláza mall has the newest box office movie offers, while at the Apolló Art Movie you can watch well or less-known art movies.

Nature
Because of the unique locality of Pécs you simply cannot get lost in the city. If you go down from the hill sooner or later you will find the city centre. But if you are willing to spend some time in the untroubled nature, all you have to do is to go up the hill.

The Mecsek hill which is surrounding Pécs is a harmonic place to visit during the whole year. On the top of it you will find the TV-tower, with a restaurant and an amazing view at the city. Who is willing to find the nature inside the city must go to the Botanical Garden of the University (6 Ifjúság Street). It is a little island of harmony within the civilization. The Tettye ruins are telling the story of the renaissance. Unfortunately the palace did not remain here anymore but the green area around it has been recently renovated, making it an ideal place to take a walk among the ruins, especially at night when you can have a magical view at the whole city. If you don’t mind taking a bus, Lake Malomvölgy or Lake Orfű are the best places to visit to be near the water, especially in summertime. In Lake Orfű you can also swim, however, Lake Malomvölgy is only for fishing or hiking/running/biking on the route around the lake.

Getting closer to the nature might involve living animals too; in this case you should definitely visit the Pécs Zoo (on the Misina hill) or the Aquarium-Terrarium (31 Munkácsy Mihály street).

If you want to get up-to-date with the cultural program selection, you can read several online and offline media to be informed. The free EnjoyPécs English-Hungarian Cultural and Touristic Program Magazine is a bi-monthly magazine that can be found in Tourinform offices, hotels, restaurants, pubs, movies, other cultural institutions and also at the Faculties and dormitories of the University. This magazine covers everything you need to know about the cultural life in Pécs and beyond. Moreover the issues are also available online with all the information an international student needs. The UNIV Pécs bi-weekly University newspaper has also a selection of upcoming programs; you can find it at every faculty of the UP.

The University Today

Today, the University of Pécs is one of the largest institutions of higher education in Hungary with the widest spectrum of teaching and research activities that is known and recognised even beyond our borders. Our University represents and accepts as its own a great tradition going back to the Middle Ages, while at the same time it also plays an active role in the task of institutionalising new knowledge that is aimed both at the present and the future.

With our more than 500 different study programmes our primary goal is to ensure high-level teaching and research in every possible area of study, assist the 29,000 students studying here as much as possible during their student life, organize study abroad scholarships and maintain and improve the quality of university services, libraries and clubs.

During their several years of study at the University our students are introduced to the secrets and depths of the branch of science they have chosen to study, while they also have the chance to meet other international and Hungarian students majoring in other areas, participate in a number of different programmes organized for them by the faculties or the University, and hopefully they also manage to find some time to experience the very active cultural life of the city of Pécs.

With its ten faculties - Faculty of Adult Education and Human Resources Development, Faculty of Business and Economics, Faculty of Illyés Gyula, Faculty of Health Sciences, Faculty of Humanities, Faculty of Law, Medical School, Faculty of Music and Visual Arts, Faculty of Sciences and Pollack Mihály Faculty of Engineering and Information Technology - the University of Pécs plays a significant role in Hungarian higher education. The University offers a broad range of training and degree programmes, ensuring high-level knowledge-transfer and research. With its students and nearly 2,000 teaching and research staff the impact of the University of Pécs extends well beyond the borders of Pécs.

A modern higher educational training system initiated by the European Union was introduced in Hungary too, known as the Bologna process, which offers students an opportunity to pursue their studies in a dynamically developing, convertible European higher educational system. The traditional college and university level training programmes were replaced by a three-tier system consisting of a basic training programme (BA, BSc), a master level programme (MA, MSc), and doctoral level (PhD, DLA) programme.

In order to meet the demands and the needs of the surrounding community for continuing education, the University of Pécs has started to develop its programmes within the area of life-long learning. In addition, the University attaches great importance to training in the colleges for advanced studies. Nearly every Faculty offers training in the framework of this organisation that encourages students to pursue their own research.

Due to the credit system, first introduced in Hungary here in Pécs, an increasing number of Hungarian students participate in international study programmes as an integral part of their education, and likewise, an increasing number of international students and researchers come to the University of Pécs to study and conduct research every year. Therefore, the University continuously works on expanding and improving its co-operation with other universities and international research institutions and is already part of a large network at different levels.

FEEDBACK

The Feedback Committee and its predecessors have been preparing questionnaires in paper format since the academic year of 1977/78. Since the academic year of 2010/11 online and monitor group assessments have been available and the Feedback incentive system was launched in 2012/13.

The students have the opportunity to assess
- Obligatory subjects and practical tutors
- Lectures
- Exams
- Elective and facultative questionnaire
- +1 Freshmen’s questionnaire

How to Fill in the Questionnaires:
1. Questionnaires are available in CooSpace
2. After log in all related subjects can be found under „My Scenes”
3. Clicking on the subject Questionnaires can be found.
4. Clicking on the questionnaires filling it in can start. (Attention! The questionnaire com prise of several pages and needs to be completed by clicking on „Completed”)
+1. Should there be an internet disconnection; the questionnaires are not available for five minutes. After it, filling in the questionnaires can be continued.

Anonimity
The questionnaires are unidentified, they contain no identifying information. The system DOES NOT STORE any link between the questionnaire and the respondent, but it stores the information if the questionnaire has been completed or not. NOT EVEN THE DEVELOPERS OF THE SYSTEM are able to interconnect survey participants with the questionnaires.

FEEDBACK INCENTIVES
Students who give feedback on obligatory subjects within the set deadline, will be awarded a bonus that entitles them to one day earlier registration for exams. This means that they will be able to register for the exams on the Saturday as opposed to the Sunday of the 13th week (in other words for feedback in the autumn semester they can use the bonus in the following spring semester and the other way round).
Feedback questionnaires are available in the scenes of subjects for two months from the last day of the exam period: „Feedback of obligatory subjects - FEEDBACK - For bonus to register for an exam earlier”. No feedback is necessary for elective subjects to be awarded a bonus.

„PASSIVE STUDENT STATUS”
Those, who go passive the following semester, are still advised to give feedback as their bonus will be available in the following active semester.

„FRESHMEN’S” QUESTIONNAIRE
„Freshmen’s” questionnaire is available each September and needs to be filled in by first year students at the scene of Feedback ÁÖK: „Freshmen’s” questionnaire - For bonus to register for an exam earlier”. This is available from the second week of the fall semester until the end of September.

CHECKING FEEDBACK STATUS
Feedback status is available from ETR/Student information field (after login to etr please lock at the bottom right of your screen). This provides information whether you are entitled to the bonus or not. Please, do not contact us in this respect.

LIFE-LONG LEARNING AT THE UP

The University of Pécs is actively taking part in Europe's leading mobility initiative, the ERASMUS Programme. The University of Pécs (UP) has participated in the Erasmus programme since 1998 with increasing intensity. The main aim is to provide specific academic and teaching opportunity to our students and professors to help them deepen their knowledge at partner institutions and work, study in an international environment. The UP is seeking partner institutions with similar structures, multidisciplinary education and research potentials. We evaluate international contacts by looking at the actually realized professional programmes and mobility. It is of high importance for our management to give opportunity for more and more students to be able to study abroad for at least one semester.

The University of Pécs plans to integrate more courses taught in foreign languages into the undergraduate studies. The University proposes agreements which realize the mobility in the student and teacher exchange in both directions. We are planning to welcome more and more students from the countries which recently became eligible. The most important benefit of the practical training is that the academic knowledge gained by the student at their home institutions can be realized in practice in an international environment with a positive impact on their future employment. In staff mobility we intend to include new university units.

History of the Library

After World War I the University of Bratislava moved to Pécs but the material of the university library remained in Bratislava. Despite the difficult financial circumstances which followed the war, the supplementation of the library stock - thanks to the donations of private persons and libraries - progressed relatively fast. The then bishop of Pécs, Gyula Zichy put the building and the stock of the bishop’s library at the disposal of the university together with the ancient volumes of the Klimo Library. The systematization and the professional processing of the library material were started by one of the outstanding persons of Hungarian library science, József Fitz. This stock constitutes the basis of the collection of the Central Library. The growth of the collection was always determined by the faculties taught at the university. As the number of faculties increased so did the library as the literature of the new sciences appeared in it. Its stock of books and periodicals is formed in cooperation with the various faculty libraries. The main task of the library is to facilitate the educational, research, healing, scientific and artistic activities carried out at the university, but as a public library it is also open to the citizens of the region. It is one of the bases of domestic interlibrary document services. As the head institution of the library network of the University of Pécs it organizes the activities of the faculty and institute libraries and also performs central tasks. Its use of an integrated computerized library system ensures the usage of domestic and foreign databases necessary for research.

Its most recent tasks include making the library’s most valuable books and those in greatest demand available using the latest digital techniques. The Museum of University History has been a part of the library organization since 2004 and the exhibition at No. 3 Szepesy Ignác Street has been open to the public since 2010. More about the history of the library.

Since October 2010 the Central Library has operated in the South-Transdanubian Regional Library and Knowledge Centre at No. 2/a Universitas Street.

RENTED ACCOMMODATION

For incoming students who demand superior quality accommodation, rented flats are an alternative. Although renting a flat does involve an element of risk and uncertainty, it can provide some students with the peace, comfort and privacy they require.

Central Office of Student Services

The Central Office of Student Services (KÖSZI - Központi Szolgáltató Iroda in Hungarian) has a large database of accommodations available for rent. Prices range between approximately HUF 45,000-100,000 (above EUR 200) for a furnished flat with gas heating for two persons that is fairly near to the city centre and/or faculties of the University.

The Central Office of Student Services can usually offer at least a couple of flats that suit your needs, but don’t be too choosy. Not all flat owners are ready to lease their flats for a short period of 0.5 to 1 year and some of them know very little English.

UNIVERSITY LEISURE ACTIVITIES

University life also includes leisure time, cultural and sports activities. Hereby we list the university programmes, but all faculties offer their special part-time activities.

Dancing University

The Dancing University of the University of Pécs is a unique initiative in Hungarian higher education. Students can select at their liking from different dancing courses, and in addition to learning a specific dance, they can get closer to one another, too. Any student, lecturer or staff member of the University is eligible for participating in a dancing course free of charge.

The range of dances and sports offered is expanded every year: everybody can find a dance to their liking, from Latin dances through folk dances, Yoga to show dances. Several participants of these courses continue their dancing career as professional dancers in dance companies and sporting clubs. One reason for its popularity is that these courses are also accepted as physical education classes at all faculties. The great success and appreciation of the programme casts a favourable light on the University of Pécs, and the performing teams proved their dancing ability at many university, city, and national festivals and competitions. In February 2011 the UP Dance Team was founded in order to be able to perform in the most various dance styles. Due to this reputation there is high demand for the programmes and courses often fill up in a few minutes after registration begins. In 2005 Dancing University set the Guinness record of „the most people belly dancing simultaneously” and on the 27th September 2010 the project reclaimed this title.

UP Dance Team

The members are able to perform in the most various dance styles, eg. salsa, hip-hop, Latin-American dances, electric boogie, show dance, musical, swing, rock and roll, cheerleading, country-show, palotás, classical ballet, contemporary dance, Argentine tango, contemporary folk dance, flamenco. In many cases even the members of the team get the opportunity to make choreographies if they feel like it. Fashion shows, dance shows accompanying live music and dancing statues can also be found in the programme.

The team has two-hour-long rehearsals twice a week with various instructors.

Participation is possible only after an audition. If you are a boy and you are a UP student or employee, you like to dance and have already learnt it do not hesitate to apply! Our aim is to find those talented and energetic UP-citizens who are real fans of dance, are open to different dance styles and can spend time for serious but joyful learning to be recognised as a prestigious group and as the ambassadors of UP student-life.

JESZ, the Theatre of the UP

JESZ (short for: Janus Egyetemi Színház, meaning Janus University Theatre) was founded in 1996. Pécs has always had great traditions in university theatrical art. At the initiative of the current leader of JESZ, János Mikuli and with the support of many university officials and teachers an agreement was concluded which is now the basis for the operation of the Theatre. In addition to the support provided by the University, the Alternative Theatre Workshop Foundation assists its productions through applying for grants. From 2012 due to a cooperation agreement with the Deutsche Bühne Ungarn there are also German language performances available at the University Theatre. JESZ is located at the artist quarter in the eastern part of Pécs, the Zsolnay Cultural Quarter (Pécs, 37 Zsolnay Vilmos Road), that was built by 2010 as part of the European Capital of Culture Programme.

Media at the UP

The University of Pécs as you might already know is a huge university, and as such it has its own media: the „UnivPécs” newspaper, the Television „Universitas” and faculty periodicals and student magazines. UnivPécs is the bi-weekly newspaper of the University of Pécs. It is circulated in the University’s South-Transdanubian campuses, in Pécs clubs and in cultural institutions in 8,000 free copies. The news and the interviews deal with university and student life and with Pécs’s (occasionally Szekszárd’s) cultural matters that concern young people.

www.univpecs.pte.hu

The Universitas Televízió is a television studio broadcasting a weekly news programme on the local channel called Pécs TV and its affiliates throughout Hungary. It also has a popular education programme entitled Open University (Nyitott Egyetem). As of 2008, all the ten faculties at the University have separate periodicals and student magazines of their own. The student magazine of the Faculty of Business and Economics (called Fészek) and that of the Medical School (“Confabula”) regularly publish articles in English. Last but not least, www.pte.hu, the website of the UP has an English (that is where you are browsing right now) and a German version running online.

http://www.univtv.pte.hu/
Student life at UP MS

Several factors, like the size, the atmosphere and the multicultural environment (students from around 60 countries pursue their studies at three programmes, in 7 majors), stable, constant groups of students due to the large number of scheduled practical classes and bed-side lessons, the supporting network of instructors that helps students from the Freshmen’s camp, contribute to help our students cope with the difficulties and challenges of the 5-6 years spent at UP MS.

Besides the professional, medicine-related interests everybody is offered possibilities to show his/her creativity to the others.

Confabula, the students’ magazine that has been awarded the first prize in the category of students’ papers, publishes mainly students’ poems and writings both to students and academic staff.

A large number of our students play music and sing as well, some of them are members of the choirs Voicebox (Hungarian, English and German programme students), Tinnitus (members of which are Scandinavian students) and members of different bands. These bands make up the Pécs Music Society. Pécs Music Society (PMS) is a society composed of international students aimed at bringing together musicians, and music lovers. Founded in 2010, it has since then organised a number of events such as Music Quizzes, Rock Band Competitions and Live Music Concerts. It also hosts its’ regular event 'Open Mic' every two weeks during term, allowing students of the whole university, and non-students alike, to showcase their musical talent in front of an audience. PMS is a society based on the common interest of music, and always hopes to attract more performers and more music appreciators - from all nations and all musical genres.

Singers, musicians, music-lovers perform also at the three main events of the school: Advent and Spring Concerts and the International Evening. With more than 2500 guests, the International Evening is one of the most important intercultural events that our international students and the University of Pécs have offered for many years. Representing their countries and cultures with culinary specialities, dances and shows, students from more than 60 nations, united at one Medical School, give the audience a very unique insight into the character of our world’s cultural diversities.

Besides the International Evening also some other events need to be mentioned, such as Pécs City Carnival, Oktoberfest, the charity event Cocktails for a Cause, organized by international students, movie clubs and parties organized by our students themselves.

The gallery of the aula is an ideal venue to organize photo or painting exhibitions.

Most of our students do sports as well, they are offered a variety of possibilities. The biggest sports event: Medikus Kupa is organized every year, inviting teams from all the four Hungarian medical schools.

Religious Counselling at the UP

Although Christianity is a dominant faith in Hungary, you are going to find great religious diversity among the citizens of the UP.

The University Chaplaincy is a joint organization of pastors of Baptist, Evangelical, Pentecostal, Greek Catholic, Roman Catholic, Methodist and Calvinist beliefs.

For the English speaking student community there is an opportunity to participate in English mass at PIUS church (next to the Faculty of Humanities, 6 Ifjúság útja).

Timings: at 7 o’clock p. m. ever first and third Saturday from October.

Confessions and spiritual talks before and after the mass.

Clergymen of the University are also happy to help you
